ABOUT THE INTERNATIONAL PEACE ACADEMY

The International Peace Academy (IPA) is a non-profit, non-governmental, academic training institute established to teach the skills of peace-keeping, peacemaking and peacebuilding to mid-career diplomats and military officers on a global basis. Since 1970, over 3,500 diplomats, military officers, policy-makers and academicians from 131 nations have attended IPA training seminars in Africa, Asia, Europe, North and Latin America.

Main activities of the Academy are:

- design and organization of *international training seminars in peace-keeping and peacemaking to prepare professionals in crisis management
- initiation and administration of *off-the-record meetings between disputing parties to facilitate their discussions
- publication of reports and books related both to practical experience and to scholarly research to identify options for resolving conflicts

The IPA is wholly transnational in its Board of Directors, program staff, administration and publications. Its financial support comes from foundation and corporate grants, private individuals and tuition fees of governments. All contributions in the United States and Canada are tax-deductible.

BANGLADESH INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL AND STRATEGIC STUDIES DHAKA

The Bangladesh Institute of International and Strategic Studies is an autonomous centre for research and deliberation on international affairs, foreign policy, strategy and related matters.

It is a Research Institute established in 1978 with the objective of undertaking, encouraging and promoting independent research for advancing analytical understanding of all aspects of international and strategic affairs.

Objectivity and independent thinking as the greatest need for research work are the motive force behind the origin of the Institute and its functioning.

The Institute's activities are aimed at conducting and promoting independent research, deliberation and dissemination of objective knowledge in the field of political, socio-economic and other relations between nations in regional and international perspectives.

The Institute pursues institutional linkage and exchange programmes with similar institutes at home and abroad for mutual sharing of benefits of research.

Publications

The institute brings out a quarterly publication titled BISS Journal which entered into the 6th year of existence in 1985. The journal contains articles on topical issues of international relations, strategy and developmental issues – national, regional and international. The journal has a readership of over 5000 with more than 100 regular subscribers within and outside the country. Since 1984, BISS began publication of its occasional BISS Papers series, three of which are already out. For copies, back and current, please contact the library. The Institute has one of the few specialized libraries in the country. The present collection includes nearly 2000 titles, about 100 journals and most of the relevant periodicals and newspapers. Some microfiche facilities are also available.
