biiss journal (ISSN 1010-9536) is published quarterly by the Bangladesh Institute of International and Strategic Studies (BIISS), Dhaka, in January, April, July and October. The journal provides a forum for debate and discussion on international affairs, security and development issues in national, regional and global perspectives.

Original contributions not published elsewhere may be submitted to the editors in duplicate, typed double-spaced, normally within about 6000 words. Footnotes following the style of Asian Survey [Example: for articles, author's name in natural order, "title of article", Journal, Vol., No., page; for books, author, title of book (place, publisher) year, page] should be placed at the end. Tables, map and diagrams should be placed in separate sheets. Contributors are requested to enclose a brief biographical note and an abstract of the article. Scripts submitted for publication are not returned. For book review, two copies of book should be sent to the editors.

Views and opinion expressed in the articles of the biiss journal are those of the individual authors and may not necessarily be attributed to the Bangladesh Institute of International and Strategic Studies.

BIISS Journal is selectively indexed by the International Political Science Abstract, Paris.

BANGLADESH INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL AND STRATEGIC STUDIES

1/46 Elephant Road, Dhaka

The Bangladesh Institute of International and Strategic Studies is an autonomous centre for research and deliberation on international affairs, foreign policy, strategy, development and related matters.

It is a research institute established in 1978 with the objective of undertaking, encouraging and promoting independent research for advancing analytical understanding of major aspects of international and strategic affairs.

Objectivity and independent thinking as the greatest need for research work are the motive force behind the origin of the Institute and its functioning.

The Institute's activities are aimed at conducting and promoting independent research, deliberation and dissemination of objective knowledge in the field of political, socio-economic and other relations between nations in regional and international perspectives.

The Institute pursues institutional linkage and exchange programmes with similar institutes at home and abroad for mutual sharing of benefits of research. Queries may be addressed to the Director General.
