DEDICATION

Prof. Shelton Kodikara, member of the Editorial Board of the Biiss Journal and a long time associate of this Institute passed away on 1 November. Prof Kodikara, who needs no introduction to the readers of Biiss Journal has left behind rich scholarly contributions on South Asian studies for which he will be remembered for ever. After his retirement following his distinguished career as Professor of History and Political Science of the University of Colombo, he established the Regional Center for Strategic Studies (RCSS) in Colombo, Sri Lanka. This Institute had the opportunity to establish close professional association with him as a leading international expert. BIISS is also involved in a number of projects initiated by him as the Executive Director of the RCSS.

We express deep condolences on his death and pray for the eternal peace of the departed soul. As a token of profound respect to him and his works on South Asia, this issue of the Biiss Journal is dedicated to his memories.
